Senator Hitchcock was ou poken in his criticism of the courses pursued by both Germany and Great Britain in ignoring the rights of neutral nations, and suggested that it might be well for the United States to consider retailatory measures of some kind to bring both to respect the rights of neutrals.
By no explanation, he said, could the #### Citizens Think Villa Will Shell Matamoras and Imperil Texans.

Washington, March 28. - Dispatches from Brownsville, Tex., say citizens there are alarmed over the outlook in Matamoras. They fear Villa's troop will be unable to drive out the Car ranza forces without the use of arbombarded lives and property in Brownsville will be in danger. Brownsville citizens decided to-day to ask United States authorities to warn General Rodriguez, the Vitla com mander, of the danger of shelling Mat amoras. It was also planned to call en Governor Ferguson for protection if en Governor rerguson to processary.

The severity of the fighting at Matamoras was indicated to-day by reports that scores of wounded combatants were brought into Brownsville and placed in the care of the Red Cross. Two hundred wounded Mexicans were brought across the international bridge, and nurses from northern stations were ordered to Brownsville to aid in the relief work.

A dispatch received at the State Department said the Villista forces had been repuised. Accounts of a glowing victory, in which 300 Villistas were killed or wounded, were given out by the Constitutionalist agency to-night.
